

ANNOUNCEMENT

On October 19, 2018, the Ministry of Diaspora of the Republic of Armenia, the National Academy of Sciences of the Republic of Armenia and the Mekhitarist Congregation are organizing a conference dedicated to the 175th anniversary of the “Bazmavep” Journal of Armenian Studies in Yerevan.

Being the longest publishing Armenian-language magazine that has presented and raised the most important and pressing issues in public life and published thousands of valuable materials related to natural sciences, economics, historiography, philology, theology, linguistics, bibliography, the arts, education and the history of the Armenian Church, today, “Bazmavep” still remains one of the most prominent Armenian periodicals and continues to present rich and valuable materials devoted to Armenian Studies.

The conference dedicated to the Journal’s anniversary will also serve as a unique expression of appreciation. The conference will feature speeches devoted to various areas of Armenian Studies, as well as debates and discussions.

State officials, high-ranking clergymen, as well as well-known intellectuals from Armenia and abroad will honor the conference with their participation.

The conference will be held at the National Academy of Sciences of the Republic of Armenia (24 Baghramyan Ave.) on October 19, 2018, starting at 10 a.m.
